AmBank Group continues to reaffirm its commitment on community support, increases contribution to The Lost Food Project to RM75,000

AmBank Group is proud to announce its increased contribution to The Lost Food Project (TLFP), raising its support from RM50,000 in the previous years to RM75,000 this year. The contribution underscores the Bank's commitment to supporting the operations of TLFP, a non-profit organisation dedicated to rescuing surplus food and redistributing it to those in need.

"The contribution reflects the Bank's ongoing dedication to addressing food insecurity and promoting sustainable solutions. The Bank has and will always be a staunch advocate for community welfare, actively participating in initiatives that make a tangible difference in the community's lives," said Jamie Ling, Group Chief Executive Officer, AmBank Group.

To commemorate its commitment on TLFP, AmBank Group also launched its own volunteer platform; the AmBank Volunteer Network (AVN) which is aimed at facilitating greater employee engagement in community service initiatives. The platform will serve as a central hub for employees to discover volunteering opportunities and hours, organise events, and track their impact, further amplifying AmBank Group's corporate social responsibility efforts.
